FILLED ROLLED WAFERS Hazelnut Chocolate

Everyone will love these delightful cookies from one of America's premier pastry companies. Made with all-natural ingredients from a traditional European recipe, rolled wafers are baked in individual layers that are rolled over one another again and again to create their unique shape and crispy texture. The flavorful hazelnut chocolate filling is specially imported from Belgium. This rich delicious wafer can be served as a dessert entrée with coffee or tea, and it makes a wonderful accompaniment to ice cream or other desserts.
